GETTING HERE

BY CAR

From the A4074 take the exit towards Cowley/Watlington/B480/ Sandford/Littlemore/ Oxford Science Pk/Littlemore Pk. The Kassam Stadium is signposted from there. The stadium has unreserved parking for around 2,000 cars. Parking is free of charge from four hours before until four hours after kick-off and available on a first-come, first-served basis.

BY TRAIN AND BUS

The nearest railway station is Oxford Station, which is connected directly to major cities across the UK and many local towns. Stagecoach route 1 and The Oxford Bus Company route City 5 run at frequent intervals (every 4–10 minutes) from the station to Knights Road, a five-minute walk to the ground. Oxford Plus Bus tickets are valid on both routes. Return or 24-hour passes bought from the driver on route 1 can be used to travel back to the station on the City 5 and vice versa. There are also several buses from Oxford City Centre and surrounding areas that run directly to the Kassam Stadium. Alternatively, a taxi from the railway station or city centre to the Kassam Stadium should cost approximately £10–£15.

DISABLED SUPPORTERS

There are specific marked bays for disabled supporters near each stand on a first-come, first-served basis.
